

Donna Hanson - Marketing Bio

For the past twenty plus years Donna Hanson has worked with organisations and their teams to minimise the time they spend on administration so they can maximise their time doing the things that matter.

She is a Certified Speaking Professional (CSP), the only globally recognised accreditation for professional speakers and one of only five people outside the US accredited to deliver an email productivity program to Microsoft's own staff.

She is the author of two books, RECLAIM Your Inbox and Ctrl + Alt + Delete – Reboot Your Productivity and has made regular appearances on programs such as Channel 7's Sunrise and Channel 9's A Current Affair programs discussing various aspects of technology.

She is passionate about getting people off technology and back to the things that matter.
